The Royal Agricultural University (RAU) is going through a period of exciting and dynamic change. At the forefront of agricultural education since its foundation as the Royal Agricultural College in 1845, the University now has some 1,200 undergraduate students from over 45 different countries studying at the historic campus, set in 25 acres of magnificent grounds in the heart of the Cotswolds. A full University since 2013, the RAU is an acknowledged leader in education and applied research relevant to the land-based industries.

The RAU is seeking an immediately available Finance Interim to support the Head of Financial Planning & Analysis (FP&A) on a three to six months basis.

The FP&A function at the RAU is primarily responsible for all data and management information, providing the necessary information and insight to enable senior management to make informed business decisions. FP&A responsibilities include all regulatory returns to external bodies such as the Higher Education Statistics Agency (HESA) and the Office for Students (OfS).

The ideal candidate will have an ACCA, ACA, or CIMA qualification, with a proven track record of hitting the ground running and meeting tight deadlines.

Informal enquiries can be made to Colin Carville (Head of Financial Planning & Analysis): colin.carville@rau.ac.uk

APPLICATION PROCESS:

If you are interested in applying for this role, please submit an up-to-date CV along with a covering letter explaining your interest and motivation for applying, along with how your experience and qualifications suit you for the role.
